About the LDN Research Trust

The LDN Research Trust is a volunteer-driven, non-profit-making Registered Charity dedicated to raising awareness of Low Dose Naltrexone (LDN) as a treatment for autoimmune and chronic diseases. We also promote the funding of research and clinical trials of LDN and publish the results for the benefit of the public. In addition we maintain a vibrant online presence where users and healthcare professionals can learn and share their experiences.

We have helped over 22,000 people obtain LDN from their doctor throughout North America, Europe, the Caribbean and Asia-Pac. Our ultimate goal is for everyone to be prescribed LDN for all conditions where LDN could be of benefit.

The Charity was set up by a group of people who have proved that LDN works for them. It is non-profit-making, and no salaries or wages whatsoever will be taken from the funds. Only expenses for the running of the Charity will be taken, and these will be at cost.
